MUSKEGON, MICHIGAN
1956

FOREWORD . . . .

Achievement, the keynote of three brief years in Greater Muskegon Catholic Central history, has made manifest to the people of Muskegon and surrounding communities the Widening Horizons of spiritual, scholastic, and social advantages in "our school."

With grateful confidence we, the Class of 1956, go forward to join the valiant ranks of those who serve God, country, and community. With ideals solidly founded on Catholic Central's teaching of the principles of Christian social living, we shall enter vocational fields in and beyond today's horizons.

The perspective broadens —- the challenge beckons — and having prepared ourselves to fully utilize the religious, intellectual, and social opportunities of today's world, we go forth to meet the challenge of Widening Horizons.

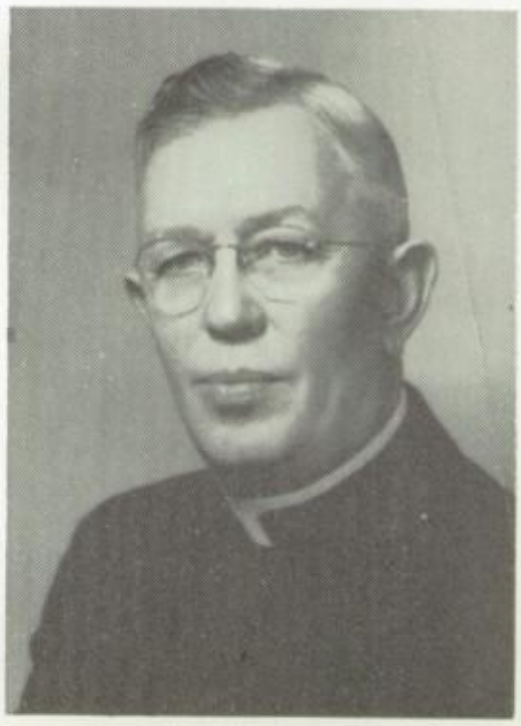
Reverend Louis B. LaPres, Principal of Catholic Central High School, has seen the dream of the Muskegon pastors and people fulfilled in three scholastic years. Through energy and foresight he has turned a material structure of brick and steel into a beacon of Catholicism, and he richly deserves credit for the great progress at Catholic Central.



Very Reverend Albert A. Kehren, Secretary of the Catholic Central Building Association, has given generously of his time and ability for the promotion and completion of the magnificent structure which represents an investment of $1,750,000.

Clergy, nuns, students, parents, and friends witness the colorful blessing ceremonies of the new Catholic Central High School by Bishop Babcock.

DEDICATION OF CATHOLIC CENTRAL

GREATER MUSKEGON CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL was blessed on December 4, 1955 by the Most Reverend Allen J. Babcock, Bishop of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, who, when speaking to the clergy, nuns, students and parents present, said:

"The entire Diocese of Grand Rapids rejoices with you . . . It is a day that has been looked forward to with such great resolve . . . You have prepared a magnificent school building . . . The material things which you have provided are now solemnly dedicated to God and to the things that pertain to God."

Bishop Babcock, accompanied by Rev. V. Gallagher, Rev. T. V. McKenna, Rev. H. Zerfas and acolytes, Joe Jensen and Joel Carlson, blesses the entire school.

"OUR LADY OF SCHOOLS"

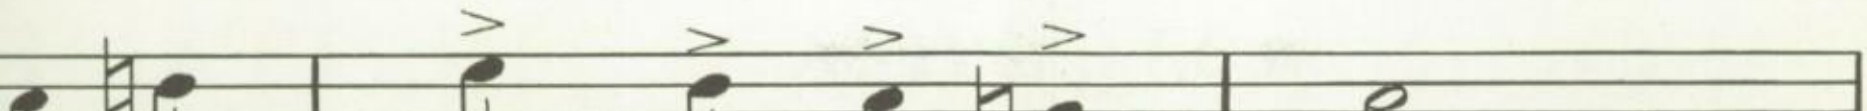
OUR LADY OF SCHOOLS, we solemnly consecrate ourselves to you . . .

Pointing out to Retreat Master, Rev. Oosdyke, O.F.M., that they are taking the days of Retreat seriously are seniors Judy Vallier, Marlene Richie, Terry Wright and Louis Tisch.

Catholic Central students pause for prayer before the next conference.



Father Karl, instructor, adds a touch of humor to his Freshman Religion class.

Putting charity into action, these energetic students prepare baskets for transportation to the needy of the Muskegon area.

Under the supervision of Sister M. Carola, O.P., a Sodality Union is organized at Catholic Central, following the attendance of 85 C. C. delegates at the Training School of Sodality Action in Detroit. These are the co-prefects from all the local parishes.

SENIORS

We, the Catholic citizens of tomorrow, have at last reached our goal. Guided by the Designer of Christianity as exemplified in Catholic education, we have been led along the various paths to young adulthood. This has been accomplished through the countless sacrifices which our parents, pastors, and community have made — sacrifices which have required years of constant effort — sacrifices which have produced Greater Muskegon Catholic Central High School.

Inspired by our teachers and the many happy memories shared with our classmates, we depart with enthusiasm for the future. We pray that God may continue to bless our Alma Mater in the great years ahead.

JUNIORS

Tolley Lauretti, president; Nell Steers, vice-president; Carol Murray, secretary; William Goggin, treasurer.

Tribute to the Seniors . . .

Congratulations to the Class of 1956! Your loyal efforts for Catholic Central have been an inspiration to every junior. This year has been a memorable one, and you, the Seniors, have contributed generously towards the spiritual, scholastic, social, and athletic achievements of 1955-56.

You have shown a path and given an example to guide us in the final phase of our journey through high school. Through your zeal in extra-curricular fields, you have exemplified the principle of combining work with fun. We have benefited from your leadership in the Sodality Union, the Teen-age Traffic Safety meetings, the lively pep assemblies, and the successful Fish Fry.

May your tomorrow's world, dear Seniors, be as happy and blessed as we, the Juniors, wish it to be. To each Graduate we say, "God bless you!"

Sophomores

Approximately two hundred and seventy students comprise the Sophomore class this year. All Sophomores are united with one aim in mind — to make the class of 1958 the outstanding class for years to come.

We underclassmen broke into athletic prominence by placing many boys on the varsity teams. Although still young, we gained much experience which will make us the team to beat in the next two years.

We Sophomores are spiritually-minded, too. We are trying to realize the importance of a Christian training. Daily Mass has found many Sophomore students there.

Sincerest wishes to the Class of '56 from the Class of '58.

DRAMATICS and SPEECH

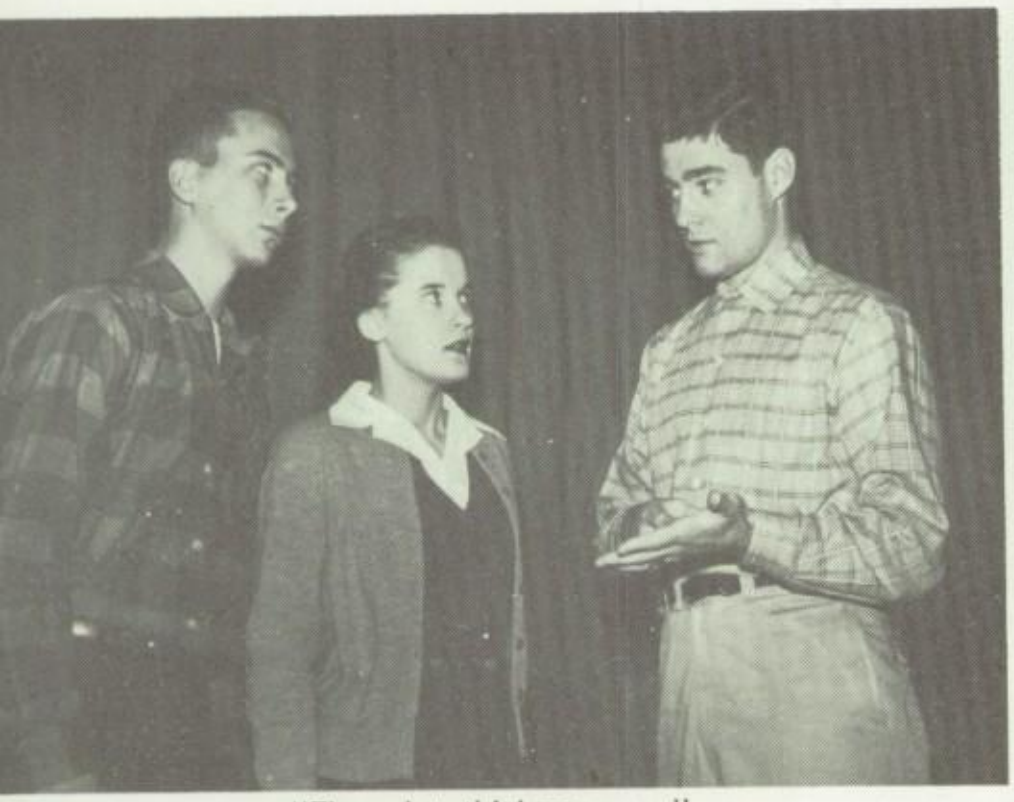
The Senior class play, "Ghost Train," under the able direction of Mr. James O'Toole was a great success.



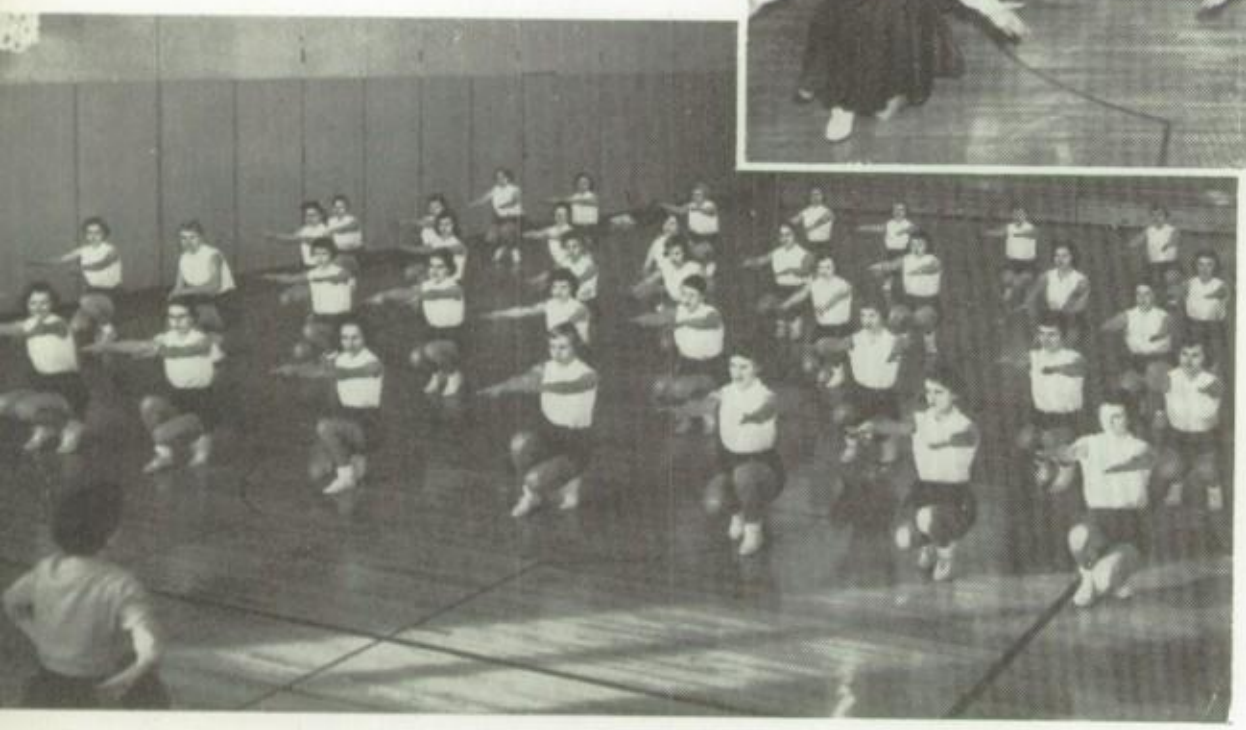
"The plot thickens . . ."

Lee Hunt, Marcia Faucher and Joe Dempsey as John Sterling, Julia Price and Herbert Price respectively take on a sinister appearance as they schedule a trip of the "Ghost Train" to further their nefarious schemes.

"Stop me if you've heard this one." Gerald Antekeier, or Teddie Deakin, tries to amuse a group of fellow-stranded-passengers who don't appreciate his brand of humor. Passengers are: Dave Kelly and Roseann Harker as Richard and Elsie Winthrop, Teddie, Jean McCarthy or Miss Bourne, Mary Jean Grill and Louie Tisch as Charles and Peggy Murdock. Dan Rewalt as Saul, the station manager, was not present when the picture was taken.

"Now this is the way it's gonna be . . ."

Rita Eddy, student director, far right, gives orders to committee chairmen of the "Ghost Train" as production nears. Marilyn Wolski, costumes; Marcia Gosma and Sandra Chandonnet, make-up; Marcia Thompson, tickets; and Joanne Drew, publicity.



The Crusettes, the all-girl precision drill team has been a familiar attraction to the spectators at Catholic Central's sports activities. Left row, front to back: C. Chamberlain, P. Stuberg, Y. Marching, calisthenics, soccer, volleyball, basketball, bowling, softball, tennis, badminton, table tennis, field and track, social dancing, square dancing, modern and tap dancing are among the activities offered to Catholic Central girls in physical education, under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Firme, instructor.

"Number, please," as General Science students combine telephone etiquette with their work.

Catholic Central's "Goodwill Ambassador," Tom Fitzpatrick, makes use of his ham radio to contact the points of the globe — and relay the news to his senior classes.

Sister M. Huberta, O.P., and her workers receive top prizes for best magazine salesmen.

SOCIAL EVENTS . . . are really refreshers from academic work and class projects carried on during the year.

The Touch Down Tromp which opened the social season at C. C. was a great success.

When the seniors got together early in the school year, they stopped their planned fun for a brief period and wrote prayerful "Get-well" messages to President Eisenhower. Father LaPres headed the messages.

One of the typical pre-prom gatherings before a Catholic Central party.

"And when I invite you, there will be pie," says Mercedes Coyle as she cuts a piece of her prize-winning pie for Miss Koestner, Home Economics teacher, and receives a cook book for future use.

Carolrae Huettner is the "master" of C. C.'s brand new organ. It takes a lot of practice to bring those tones out.

Governor Williams crowns Marilyn Wolski, Homecoming Queen.

The big event on the social calendar was the Homecoming Party. Popular athlete, Tom Fitzpatrick, though still on crutches, came happily in to be with Marilyn Wolski.

Members of the newly formed C. C. Alumni are enjoying their reunion.

Here are the folks who keep the activities moving. The dance committee, standing, Tolley Lauretti, Nell Steers. Seated, Tom McDermott, Sally Cihak, Kay Cihak, Mary Beth Ludwig.

Mary Carlson, C. C.'s top strutter.

Joanne Drew and Louis Zaloga reign over the Valentine festivities.

Popular Social Hour

The most popular social hour at C. C. is the lunch period. After the "hunger marchers" are satiated, the recreation time resounds with witty conversation, games and music.

The reason for this gay period? Mrs. Marjorie Teall, dietician, insists "Variety is the spice of life" and the C. C. students certainly have plenty of "spice" in their lunches. Mrs. Stenger, Mrs. G. Vento, Mrs. Marjorie Teall, holding menu card; Mrs. L. Brown, Mrs. H. Geyer, Mr. Michael Corgan, Head Coach, receiving "a hearty meal for a hungry man," and Mrs. I. Boucher. Mrs. L. Rossman was not present when picture was taken.

SPORTS

Great credit may be given to all the athletic teams and Coaches at Catholic Central for their fine spirit and earnest endeavors during 1955-56. Our football team was handicapped by the inexperience of several men on the team, but they were soon polished off and at the end of the season we had a smooth-working squad. For the first time in school history a Muskegon Catholic player, Bob Milanowski, was placed on the mythical All-state team. The team will be weakened by the graduation of several good men next fall.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM, short on one end, played to the finish in every contest. Dave Kelly and Ron Dugas will be lost by graduation next year.

Baseball, Tennis, Golf and Track are upcoming attractions at C. C. With fine coaching it helps the boys tremendously.

Much credit must be given to the coaching staff for their time and endeavors in behalf of the teams and the school. Head Athletic Coach Mike Corgan's name stands for true-sportsmanship, and we all honor him. Also we thank the faculty, student body and our many friends for their support.

GRAND HAVEN GAME

Ron Regeczi ran the opening kickoff back 96 yards for the first touchdown of the season. Because of a safety the Crusaders lost a hard fought battle 20-19. This year is the first time the jinx was broken, the Crusaders finally scored on the Bucs.

Rackiewicz tiptoes down the sidelines for a large gain before being bounced out of bounds. A few seconds later he plunged from nine yards out for the final T.D.

The Crusaders overwhelmed the Vikings of Cadillac by a resounding 30-12 score. Beautiful teamwork accomplished this feat. Sound and hard blocking by the line and backfield captivated the large crowd.

A loose ball about to be recovered by Crusader sophomore No. 60, Dave Tisch. The Crusaders capitalized on this break to score the third T.D. of the evening.

MUSKEGON HEIGHTS GAME

The Muskegon Heights Tiger crew had too much power for the undermanned Crusaders who were suffering the loss of gigantic tackle, Bob Cathcart. Bob suffered a broken arm in the Central game. Catholic scatbacks, Wolski, Regeczi, and Rackiewicz brought the jam-packed stadium to its feet with thrilling runs, only to lose a hard fought battle 27-14.

Jerry Wolski, sophomore fullback, tries desperately to score but is stopped short of the final stripe by a whole host of Tigers.

GRAND RAPIDS UNION GAME

C. C. bounced back after the Heights defeat to subdue a strong Union squad to the tune of 20-13. Both teams were evenly matched, but the Crusader line, led by all-stater Bob Milanowski, proved to be too much for the Red Hawks to handle.

Ron Regeczi goes in standing up for the third T.D. Ron made all three touchdowns with runs of 85, 70, and 90 yards.

The Crusaders' well-balanced team proved to be too much for the undermanned Hilltoppers. Jerry Fitzpatrick and Harry Allore, upcoming underclassmen, made their debut by ripping large holes in the Ottawa line. Fitzpatrick scored twice and Allore once.

The Big Reds' experience was too much for the smaller Crusaders. Muskegon jumped off to an early 21-0 lead. The Crusaders found themselves in the second period and came within one T.D. In the third period the Crusaders closed the gap to one point, but the heavier Muskegon squad sneaked out of the battle with a 28-20 win.

Jim Saylor has rough sailing before getting bounced out of bounds by "52" Terry Wright. Bob Milanowski also moved in for the tackle.

The Cougars, second-ranked team in the state, proved to be too much in the first half but wilted in the second half to a scrappy group of Crusaders. The Cougars led 21-0 at half-time and came out on top 21-7 at the conclusion of the game.

Jerry Fitzpatrick jumps high into the air to snag an aerial from quarterback Joe Dempsey for a short gain against Grand Rapids Catholic. The Cougars defeated the Crusaders 21-7.

Meet Mr. Thomas Paquin, Assistant Purchasing Agent of Sealed Power, shown here talking to Joseph Jensen, Catholic Central Honor Student. He, like you, graduated from the Catholic High School system. However, he was a member of the graduating class of St. Jean's in 1941. The story of his successful career with this company is a story from which you can draw inspiration and guidance, for his problems following graduation were not unlike those which currently confront you.

In the near future you must make some important decisions about your future, just as Mr. Paquin did some years ago. No matter which path you may chart for your life, we invite you to consider Sealed Power as offering opportunities to alert young men and women.

WIDER HORIZONS

We have reached the summit of a hill. Before us is the broad horizon — wider now than ever before in our lives.

Our school has made outstanding progress in its three years. We hope we have developed accordingly. Two classes have completed their courses here and become fine Catholic citizens of the world. Under the leadership of our principal, Reverend Louis LaPres, Catholic Central has become known and respected. It is a center for Muskegon Catholic Youth. Its clubs and activities are increasing and broadening the school as well as its students.

As we also graduate, Muskegon Catholic Central's horizons become wider. Out of our ranks and our successors', great scientists, teachers, doctors, engineers — leaders in all walks of life — may be its future alumni.

Soon we leave this memorable high school and face the widening horizon. We leave with a double world outlook — happiness in this world and in the next.

The Class of 1956

Margie Goulet, Secretary
